To the RHS Graduating Class of 2005 ,
Wow! We've finally made it to the end - but actually, it's quite the opposite. What do you need to begin something?

A foundation.
These past four years have been the foundation for the rest of our lives. They've helped determine who we are and what we will become.

Seniors, build goals and set standards on this foundation. Set them high. Then I challenge you to achieve every last one of them.

Remember, anyone can be second best. In order to be a REAL success you need to be THE best. I give you my love, respect, and best wishes. Congratulations, Class of '05! We have made it!

Your 2004-2005
Senior Class President,
Amanda Littles

This is the time of our lives. The time we meet new people and experience new things. We begin a blueprint for our lives. We've wated our whole lives for this and all we can say about it is, THE ABOdT Thmem!

1. Do you call this "skipping class?"
2. Blake"Why are they taking our pieture?"
3. A fittle fun after work?

- Candice Ramey

4. Hunter-What else is in there?"
5. Charlie's Devils

Kindle Rouse was chosen to attend the Commonwealth Honors Academy at Murray State University in June 2004.

She and the 75 other Honors Academy scholars attended campus presentations including lectures, a concert, forums on diversity and college/career planning; took trips to the Frist Art Museum and the Tennessee Performing Arts Center in Nashville and to the Civil Rights Museum in Memphis; and parlicipated in a foreign film festival, dances, and variety shows. The Honor's Academy concluded with a learning fair where the students showcased their work from their academic classes.

For her participation in the Commonwealth Honors Academy, Kindle received six credit hours of college-level academic credit and has the opportumity to take six additional credit hours, Luition free, at Murray State University during her senior year at RHS.

Congratulations to Kindle for her stellar representation of Riverside High School.

The Yearbook Staff and the Class of 2005 would like to express their appreciation to Mr. Jim Ayers for allowing us to photograph the Senior Superlatives in his home.

Marghing Through TME.

Last. spring was a melancholy time. It was a time when we had not only to say good-bye to our graduating seniors, but also to our band direct or Because of the depart ure, we knew things were about to thange. We, as a band and as inctividuals, were embarking on a new adventure. Thein Mr. Crockett came to lead us. He challenged and encouraged us to do our best.
During the sumniner, we were pushed to our linits. We practiced and played. After those long hours, we were ready to put everything on the field. BRING ON THE HALFTME!
Over the next few months, we did more than just alft:ine shows : we went to competitions,, our drunnmers participated in a P.A.S.I.C. event in Nashville, and we went to play at the All-West element ary schools. We even had a few members try out for all-west. We playeut everywhere from Mainstreet in Decaturville to Christmas at Riverside.
Our band memories consist of more than just hard work and long hours. You could always see, a flag girl cheering on the side... a cymbal strap always reaking...white socks that Hlinded the crowd, drum sticks flying through the air, or band mommies flashing cameras everywhere.
We'll always remember the laughs and the fun we've had this year. Good luck to our graduating seniors - none could ever fill your shoes.

The Band has had a very successful year. They have worked extremely hard, performing at seven football games and two competetions. They also performed at Decaturville Mainstreet, Scott's Hill Appreciation Days, Parsons Christmas Parade, Decaturville Christmas Parade, and Christmas at Riverside. Along with students from the middle school, the band played Christmas music for Decaturville and Parsons Elementary School. This has been a wonderful group to work with, and they have done all I have asked of them and more. All of the band students have maintained a great attitude and have elevated the band to a new level that makes the future look bright.

Joey,

You are the greatest nephew on earth
You will never know what the joy we shared has been worth Seems like only yesterday you started to school And have always followed the Golden Rule
I watched as you hit the ball, ran, and slid into home plate Was always soared you would be a second late Watched you on the football field with pride Seems you can be good at whatever you decide Remember what really counts is what you give away
So spread your love each and every day
I know it seems sad to leave Riverside High
But there is happiness even after we die
It is time now to set new goals for your future plan
Set them high and succeed when you can
You can always know that I will be on the sidelines cheering for you No matter what you decide to do.

 Jock, love you this much. Love Zach

All the love, joy and adventure you have brought into my life since you were born have let me know every day how blessed I am. You always showed your independence, always showing you had a plan for your life. The day you turned sixteen, you brought your flowers from school and gave them to me in the hospital. From that moment on, you took over all the driving. bills and household responsibilities. You managed to take care of me, keep up your grades, keep us all laughing and together. and still make time for yourself. Now youre moving into another phase of your life. I want you to know how very proud of you I amm. Our life has never been boring but it's a little scary too.

Forever Friends

You're my friend and that is true, But the gift was given from me to you, We went thru moments that were good and bad, Even moments that were happy and sad, You supported me when I was in tears, We stuck together when we were in fear.

It's really sad that it had to be this way,

But it has reached its very last day.
Miles away can't keep us apart,
'Cause you'll always be in my heart
Good Luck
Drew and Tad

We love you both, Felecia, Micki, and Bart

On the day you were born to this place.
We begian every day with a smile on our face,
There should be no doult how proud we will always be Of the young lady who plays every moment happy and free

The word 'No' is not in your mind or understanding. Only I will or 'I can' is the way you have faced every challenge. We are so proud you have made it to this place in your life so far.

You will always be our bright and shining star. Just remember the words we have shared and have always said:

Nothing is unattainable or too far from your reach. that with determination it can be had.

We love you without a doubt. You are the soccer-playing, fun-loving, dynamic team bowler, musically talented computer-using, car-driving, Olympic-swimming girl that never, never gives UP! And we will never give up on you We love you

This time has come way too soon. I can remember your taking your first steps and saying your first words like it was yesterday. College is just around the corner. Maybe it won't be too far, because now it's my turn to see how someone leaving feels. Keep your head up, your smile big, your dreams and faith alive. Just like I taught you, always one foot in front of the other.

We had oup Tíme...

Congratulutions, Tapestry Communications tgant of cingular and Samuel Spence Direct TU

Now it's your time!

And the world sprane to life, An infinitesimal instant for us alone.
Un seconds we saw years pass,
For moments we thought they'd last,
A sweet ignorance always welcoming us home.
Nore rare than yellow diamonds,
Memories last forever,
A tender tribute to our lives, past and future.
Eternity's all that's left,
Until time begins acain.
Are we ready? Tine will tell. For now, Farewell.
